

UNITE PACIFIC & AUSTRALASIA - FEBRUARY 26, 2019

SPONSORED BY TOURISM FIJI

NEWS TO USE IN BRIEF

● ACCOR was showing off its new logo which reflects the more upmarket brands it represents. News from the Accor family includes the re-opening of Raffles Singapore this August, following a major two-year restoration. An exciting new property anticipated for this year is an Orient Express Hotel, the first of its kind, in Bangkok, slated for Q4. accorhotels.com

● TAHITI'S THE BRANDO has been shortlisted for the 2019 Climate Action Award. The luxury resort relies entirely on renewable energy such as solar power and coconut oil, and all building materials are of local or certified origin, renewable, or incorporate recycled components. A deep seawater air-conditioning system keeps the hotel cool. thebrando.com

● NEW SOUTH WALES is raising awareness of Port Macquarie on the Mid North Coast of the state. The destination has 17 beaches, national parks, abundant wildlife and fascinating heritage and is renowned for its produce, including oysters. visitnsw.com

● A NOVEL attraction has opened in Fiji. Ecotrax comprises bikes mounted on a railway track and is a new way for visitors to explore the Coral Coast. ecotrax.com.fj

