

UNITE INDIAN OCEAN & MIDDLE EAST • MARCH 6, 2017

SPONSORED BY MAURITIUS TOURISM AND MOVENPICK

Unite tours the globe

March is the month of Unite's series of trade workshops. Selling Travel was the media partner of three of the industry's most valuable networking events

A RHEENA ADOLPHE DOOKUN AND RAKESH JOOMUCK, EMOTIONS DM; B ANTHONY VALE, MOVENPICK, ALICE DARBY, HILLS BALFOUR, LISA MERRIGAN, SELLING TRAVEL, DEBBIE FLANNAGAN, UNITE, RHYS POWELL, MTPA; F SANGITA MAKWANA, DUBAI TOURISM; G ANITA SKIBIEL AND OLIVIA TRUCO, DUSIT THANI MALDIVES; H DOMINIC SMITH, ANANTARA

SHOW SNIPPETS

● SIX Senses Zil Pasyon on the Seychelles island of Felicite is now fully operational after opening at the end of 2016. The company says the UK is its number one market.

sixsenses.com

● DUSIT Thani Maldives has a new General Manager and has launched its new luxury yacht programme, The Azimut, for groups and couples.

dusit.com

● AIR Mauritius is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year. It will launch a new flight from Heathrow in July, bringing the service up to four frequencies a week.

airmauritius.com

● DUKES Dubai is slated for an April opening. The hotel is complete and fully operational.

dukesdubai.com

● QATAR is positioning itself as a stopover destination. Qatar Airways has removed transit visa fees when visitors stop for between five and 96 hours.

visitqatar.qa

“This year we’ve seen growth from the UK, which is our biggest market. 30% of our business in winter is from the UK”

PRITI BHUDIA, SALES MANAGER, SHANGRI-LA HOTELS & RESORTS