

UNITE PACIFIC & AUSTRALASIA • MARCH 14, 2017

SPONSORED BY TOURISM FIJI

SHOW SNIPPETS

● SEIT Outback Australia is one of 12 operators in Tourism Australia's new Wildlife Collection, a curated selection of wildlife-based experiences from small, owner-operated companies which agents can search by season, animal, landscape or destination. australianwildlifecollection.com

● BORA Bora has its first new opening in 10 years: Conrad Bora Bora Nui (formerly Hilton Bora Bora Nui). The five-star resort has 85% over-water rooms, French and Asian restaurants and a hillside spa. conradhotels3.hilton.com

● PAPUA New Guinea specialist Trans Niugini Tours has a new property: Lake Murray Lodge. Set on the country's largest lake, a birdwatching paradise, the remote property has 12 cabins. pngtours.com

● AAT Kings has a new tour, Inspiring Australia. The Cairns to Sydney trip visits Uluru, Kings Canyon, Alice Springs, the Hunter Valley and Blue Mountains. aatkings.com

“New Zealand is seeing more openings in the luxury sector, including coastal Helena Bay Lodge and Mahu Whenu homestead and eco-sanctuary”

KATE FENTON, PREMIUM TRADE MANAGER – EUROPE, TOURISM NEW ZEALAND

A SALLY PARKER, SELLING TRAVEL; B SHOW FLOOR; C SEBASTIAN SARRASIN, SAMOA TOURISM AUTHORITY; D KARLA EGGELTON & NOELINE MATEARIKI, COOK ISLANDS TOURISM; E HEATHER COLBOURN, AAT KINGS; F RICHARD J. PARKS, TRANS NIUGINI TOURS; G DEBBIE FLANNAGAN, UNITE, JANE WEST & DAVID JOHNSON, FIJI TOURISM; H KATE FENTON, TOURISM NEW ZEALAND

