

Uniting the world

Selling Travel was the media partner at three of the annual Unite events. Here's the latest news from the Indian Ocean & Middle East, Pacific & Australasia and Unite Visit USA events

SPONSORED BY SECRETS OF CEYLON

NEWS IN BRIEF

• Heritage hideaways

Sri Lanka is developing its luxury villa offering and Taru Villas is stepping up the promotion of its clutch of luxurious colonial heritage properties with private chefs in Bentota.

taruvillas.com

• New Asian trails

Luxury DMC Emotions, which currently operates tailor-made tours in Mauritius, is starting a sister DMC – Asian Trails – this year, bringing its expertise to East Asia, getting local talent onboard and working with UK tour operators.

emotionsdmc.com

• All-inclusive addition

The Seychelles will welcome a new Club Med resort to its shores this October, which will be the islands' largest and only all-inclusive, taking over the plot from Beachcomber.

clubmed.co.uk

• Nikki Beach bargains

Nikki Beach Resort & Spa Dubai is offering visitors the chance to get a free upgrade to a palatial cabana with private pool, when they book a luxury cabana for 10 people or more.

nikkibeach.com

• Residence revamp

The Residence Mauritius is currently revamping the resort, including adding a new barefoot beachside grill.

elegantresorts.co.uk