

UNITE PACIFIC & AUSTRALASIA – FEBRUARY 27, 2018

United around the globe

Selling Travel was the media partner for three of Unite's highly anticipated trade workshops, held in London. Business was brisk and those participating regions had plenty of news to share...

SHOW SHORTS

● TAHITI'S Manava Beach Resort and Spa is positioning itself as a resort for all – whether couples, honeymooners, families or divers. Set between a white-sand beach and the mountains on Moorea, the 90 overwater, beach and garden bungalows are built in a Polynesian style. spmhotels.com

● THE Cook Islands Tourism Corporation invited operators at Unite onto a specially-branded post-show party bus for a drive around London. It was themed around the destination's Rehab Party Bus which, whilst pumping out dance music, visits several bars and nightclubs on Rarotonga. cookislands.travel

● TOURISM Australia showcased its Signature Experiences of Australia collection. The programme promotes outstanding tourism experiences in special interest categories such as luxury lodges, premium wineries, guided walks, wildlife encounters, fishing adventures and golf holidays. tourismaustralia.com

● UK company Fred & Mildred represents three Kiwi properties: Eagles Nest is a collection of five villas in the Bay of Islands; Bay of Many Coves are one-, two- and three-bedroom apartments in the Marlborough Sounds; and Annandale on the Banks Peninsula near Christchurch offers a farm escape in stylish villas. fredandmildred.co.uk

● TRANS Niugini Tours operates seven lodges in some of Papua New Guinea's most scenic regions, operates its own fleet of vehicles, boats and aircraft and offers tours that focus on special interests such as birds or tribal art. pngtours.com
